OUR PRODUCT RANGE

AMBIENT CATEGORY

(BAKERY)

Our diverse repertoire includes the irresistible Wire-Cut Chocolate Chip Cookies, exquisite Encrusted Cookies, and the rich, indulgent goodness of Danish-style Butter Cookies that melt delightfully in your mouth.

From classic favourites to innovative creations, every cookie reflects our commitment to precision, consistency, and exceptional taste. With Bühler technology at the heart of our production, we bring together world-class manufacturing and the timeless joy of a perfectly baked cookie.

For Rusk from the initial dough preparation and baking to slicing and the final toasting process, every stage is carefully controlled to deliver crisp, crunchy, and delicious rusks with the quality and consistency expected from a modern food-processing facility. With Haas technology at its core, our Rusk Line brings together engineering excellence and timeless taste, creating a product that pairs perfectly with tea, coffee, or simply on its own.

Because when it comes to rusk & cookies, we believe excellence should be something you can taste.

Rusk & Cookies

Mecatherm & Haas Line

Welcome to our state-of-the-art Cookies Line, powered by Bühler Group, a Swiss multinational renowned for its excellence and leadership in food-processing technology. Here, we don't just bake cookies—we craft an experience where technology meets taste. Our advanced production line has the capability to produce up to 16 tonnes of premium cookies per day ensuring both consistency and scale.

Our state-of-the-art Rusk Line by Haas combines advanced European baking technology with the traditional appeal of a perfectly crisp, golden rusk. Designed for precision, consistency, and high-volume production, the line enables us to produce rusks with a uniform texture, colour, and bake. We have a capacity to produce 20 tones of rusk per day.

FROZEN FOOD

(SNACKS)

Our Frozen Food Processing Division is equipped with advanced IQF (Individual Quick Freezing) and blast-freezing technology from Midwest, enabling us to process and preserve a wide variety of frozen food products while maintaining their natural taste, texture, colour, and nutritional characteristics.

The process begins with careful selection and preparation of raw materials, followed by controlled processing, cooking or blanching wherever required, and rapid freezing. Our frozen-food capabilities allow us to develop and manufacture a diverse portfolio, including ready-to-cook, ready-to-fry, and other processed frozen food products. From traditional Indian favourites to contemporary convenience foods, the line provides the flexibility required to cater to evolving consumer preferences.

With Midwest freezing technology, stringent hygiene standards, controlled processing, and a robust cold chain, we focus on delivering frozen foods that offer convenience without compromising on taste and quality.
